Library Pool Day

It's August, and with the warmer temperatures, many of us are visiting waterparks, rivers, lakes, and of course, the local community pool. Did you know that your library card can help you get into the Spring Green pool for free? Thanks to a partnership with the Spring Green Pool, we are excited to offer free admission to the pool for one day in August.

During the month of August, check out anything from our library (books, movies, magazines, audio-books, activity kits, etc) and ask for your Library Pool Day pass, which will grant you free admission to the pool on August 19th. If the weather doesn't cooperate on August 19th, a rain date of August 23rd is scheduled. Please note that the pool hours are 1-4:30PM and 6-8PM.

We only have a limited number of passes, so visit the library and ask for your pass today! And please, leave your library materials at home before heading to the pool!

Library Survey

Throughout the month of August, please take our library survey. This survey will help us plan for the future, and your input is needed! The survey is available in paper format at the library and online through our website.

Kids & Teens

By Chris Baker, Youth Services Librarian

Well, the time is nearly upon us. What time, you ask? The Spring Green Library's Summer Library Program is coming to a close! We've laughed with David Landau, we've stretched with Emily Benz, and we've squawked with R.E.G.I. and their amazing birds! It sure has been a fantastic summer... but remember: there's still a bit more time left! As we're approaching the end of our SLP, we want to remind kids and parents to keep reading, as kids still have until August 17th to meet their reading goal and win a prize! You can also still complete the scavenger hunt. And you'll definitely want to pay attention to our website as we approach September. The Youth Services department has some outstanding monthly fall programs approaching, including Pokemon club, LEGO/Minecraft club, After School Arts with Pat Scofield, and our Stop-Motion Animation club! Of course, we'll also have fall story times for babies and toddlers, too – so be sure to stay tuned! If you have any further questions feel free to call the Spring Green Library at 608-588-2276, and ask for Chris Baker (Youth Services Librarian) or Heather Zumm (Youth Services Assistant).
