Department of Workforce Development Friday, December 1 at 9 AM

Assistance from the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development/Job Service will now be available the 1st Friday of each month, from 9 am-12 pm. Sign up for 30-minute or 1-hour appointments by calling the library at 608-588-2276 (or take a chance and drop-in!). You'll get one-on-one help applying for unemployment benefits, resume writing, job search strategies, interview skills, and more.

Friends of the Library Bake and Book Sale Saturday, December 2 at 8:30 AM

Open to the general public at 9 am. Special members' only shop at 8:30 am. Not a member? You can join that morning! Featuring homemade baked goods and gently used books - fiction/non-fiction, coffee table books, cookbooks, gardening, craft, children's, and DVDs. This event is one of the Friends' major fundraising events of the year; proceeds go to support Library programs and special projects.

Used Book Donation Saturday, December 2 at 10 AM

The Friends accept donations of gently used books for resale at the library. Book collections take place on the first Saturday of every month, between the hours of 10-12 (noon). Proceeds from the sales help support the library and related activities. Please note: Books smelling of mildew, damaged books, encyclopedias, textbooks or instruction manuals are unacceptable and will be refused.

Lego/Minecraft Club Wednesday, December 6 at 3:45 PM

Have fun and share ideas with friends. LEGO/Minecraft Club is an adventure in building techniques, applied geometry, cooperation, and creative storytelling. Play, learn and grow with the tools needed to excel in the world of tomorrow. Bring your mobile device and play Minecraft with your friends!

10-Minute Play Writing Workshop Saturday, December 9 at 1 PM

Study the secrets and structures of 10-minute plays in a workshop with Marnie Dresser, a widely published writer and Professor of English at UW-Richland, where she has taught creative writing for 25 years. You will finish the 2-hour session with: experience in crafting dialogue and plot, a list of possibilities for 10-minute plays, a beginning draft of a play, and maybe – just maybe – enough momentum to write and submit a play for the 2018 10-minute play contest sponsored by the Friends of the Library in February.

Miniature Food Earrings Wednesday, December 13 at 6 PM

Join Autumn and Maddie as they teach you how to make miniature food earrings out of clay. Registration is required. Ages 12 and up.

Movie Night—Despicable Me 3 Friday, December 15 at 4 PM

No need to register - just drop on in for a free showing of the new and popular film Despicable Me 3. Everyone can daydream about soothing warm climates while we enjoy this excellent movie, and munch on free popcorn and lemonade while doing so! Tell your friends, and bring the whole family! Despicable Me 3 is rated PG. Parents must be present for all children 6 and younger. See you there!

Anime Night—Wolf Children Friday, December 29 at 4 PM

Come hang out at the library and watch some awesome anime! Celebrate what you love: manga, anime, and geek culture! Additionally, there will be some Asian snacks to chow and some awesome anime/manga accessories to check out! We highly encourage Cosplaying, so break out your favorite character costume! It's a very casual evening to get together, share interests, and meet new friends! Most videos are rated PG-13, so parental discretion is advised.

Sharing Family History Saturday, January 6, 1 to 2:30 pm

Are you interested in family history? The holidays are a great time for conversation and sharing the family stories that help bridge generations. Join local author, Doris Green, for a discussion and workshop on how to discover and share your family's history. Green will also discuss the process she went through researching her own family history and writing, Elsie's Story: Chasing a Family Mystery published in 2017. Copies of the book will be available for signing and purchase. Ages 12 and up.
