Strategies for Social Security and Retirement Income Thursday, November I at 6:00 PM

This class is designed to help accomplish the most prevalent goal among retirees - to not run out of money. It is imperative to learn the various options for filing for benefits and how to maximize them. This class will also help determine retirement income needs, and introduce options on structuring income in retirement.

Department of Workforce Development Friday, November 3 at 9 AM

Assistance from the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development/Job Service will now be available the 1st Friday of the month, from 9 am-12 pm, right here at the library. Sign up for 30 minute or 1-hour appointments by calling the library at 608-588-2276 (or take a chance and drop-in!). You'll get one-on-one help applying for unemployment benefits, resume writing, job search strategies, interview skills, and more.

Used Book Donation Saturday, November 4 at 10:00 AM

The Friends accept donations of gently used books for resale at the library. Book collections take place on the first Saturday of each month, between the hours of 10 am - noon. Proceeds from the sales help support the library and related activities.

PLEASE NOTE: We do not take magazines, textbooks, encyclopedias, old computer manuals or damaged (moldy, dirty, broken binding) books.

Toddler Tuesday Storytime Tues., November 7, 14 10:30 AM

Preschool Storytime Wed. November 1, 8, 15 10:30 AM

Activities are geared toward zero to two year olds, but all are welcome.

Join Miss Maddie for a fun and interactive Storytime. You can expect songs, stories, rhymes, puppets, crafts, and more.

Lego/Minecraft Wednesday, November 8 at 3:45 PM

Have fun and share ideas with friends. LEGO/Minecraft Club is an adventure in building techniques, applied geometry, cooperation, and of course, creative storytelling. Play, learn and grow with the tools needed to excel in the world of tomorrow. Bring your mobile device and play Minecraft with your friends!

Book Discussion—Hillbilly Elegy Thursday, November 9 at 6:30 PM

Join friends and neighbors for a discussion of the 2017 Go Big Read selection, Hillbilly Elegy by J. D. Vance. The discussion will be led by University of Wisconsin–Madison i-School students, Heather Sonntag and Drew Garrison. This shared reading experience is designed to engage the community in vigorous discussion and exchange of diverse ideas.

For more information, visit the Go Big Read website at http:// www.gobigread.wisc.edu/

Frank Lloyd Wright with Bob Kann Thursday, November 16 at 6:00 PM

Bob Kann tells stories from his book "Frank Lloyd Wright and His New American Architecture". From boyhood adventures to the creation of visionary buildings like the Guggenheim Museum, Bob's biography of FLLW chronicles the vibrant life of one of the world's most famous architects. Hear tales how Frank Lloyd Wright designed the Imperial Hotel in Tokyo to withstand an earthquake, leaky roofs, designing more than 1000 different fireplaces, controversies over calling FLW "Mr. Wright" or "Frank," and much more.

Make it & Take It: Fruit Sushi Wednesday, November 22 at 4:00 PM

Learn about how sushi is made and assembled, and make your own using fruit and sweetened rice. Ages 7-12. Registration is required.

Anime Night Friday, November 24 at 4 PM

Come hang out at the library and watch some awesome anime! Celebrate what you love: manga, anime, and geek culture! Additionally, there will be some Asian snacks to chow and some awesome anime/manga accessories to check out! We highly encourage Cosplaying, so break out your favorite character costume! It's a very casual evening to get together, share interests, and meet new friends! Most videos are rated PG-13, so parental discretion is advised.
